

Hi Suzuki Teachers, Students and Families,

A couple teachers around New Zealand have come up with the Suzuki Connect Concerts. Although these started in May (during the nationwide Lockdown), this is an initiative to continue running these Zoom Concerts as an opportunity to share music regardless of how far apart we live and no matter what is going on in the world!

As well as students, this is also an opportunity for teachers to play Suzuki pieces too!

Obviously we all prefer to perform to a live-audience in the same room, so this is not an alternative to the traditional studio and branch concerts. SCC is not organised as a regional branch event, but rather an opportunity for teachers and students to connect together from different centres and especially while there is a degree of uncertainty of being able to meet together in person.

Full details including the link to the registration form are available from this page:

The next two dates confirmed so far are:

Sunday 20 September 2020, 4pm (registration closes 8pm Th.17/9 if not filled sooner)

Sunday 20 December 2020, 4pm (registration not yet open for this concert)

November dates will be added to the page above when dates are confirmed.

You are welcome to share this link to invite people now! :)
